WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1899.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1906.

THE RESULT.

He wrote a noble poem
Designed to bring renown;
With common voice the critics
Advised to "boil it down."

He cooked it to a sonnet;
Again with lordly frown
The arbiters of letters
Repeated: "Boil it down."

It simmered to a quatrain;
He missed the laurel crown—
Still in his ears re-echoed
The mandate, "Boil it down."

But when again he boiled it,
Complying with the hint,
The only word remaining
Was scorching too much to print.

—New York Times.

How about the election of Truant Officer? The law demands that such an officer shall be chosen, and how comes it that the Board of Education in this city refuse to comply with the plain letter of the law? The time is here for the election of such an officer.

Maysville's Hydraulic Engineer Could Straighten Out Cincinnati

This city has an Engineer in the person of Superintendent August Schaeffer of the Maysville Water-works that is capable of straightening matters in the water famine in Cincinnati if given a chance.

There is no such trouble experienced here as a breakdown in the big pumps doing service at the Water Station in the East End.

Of the two pumps in position, one has not been in service for fourteen years, but is ready at short notice to go into commission and perform its full share of work.

And all because there is a man at the head of affairs who is competent and understands his business.

ENTRIES CLOSE SEPTEMBER 10.

It should be borne in mind by all intending exhibitors that entries for a large majority of the classifications for the Big Bluegrass Fair, to be held at Lexington the week of September 17th to 22d, close on Monday, September 10th, one week before the Fair begins. Entry blanks for all classifications have been prepared and can be had upon application to Secretary Bain. A large number of entries have already been received. They embrace many of the finest herds of cattle, many of the most noted droves of sheep and many of the most desirable pens of hogs that will be exhibited on the Big Fair Circuit this year. The Bluegrass Fair will outstrip in magnitude and in importance even the fondest hopes of those who were originally responsible for its organization. Unless present prospects are a poor indication of what may be expected, it will unquestionably be the biggest and the best Fair ever held in the South.

Mr. William Trouts was host to a launch party yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Annabell Brough of Helena, guest of Miss Frazer.

During the rain last Sunday night, L. B. Robertson of Piqua was struck by lightning and came near losing his life. He was closing a window when the lightning struck the house. Mr. Robertson was knocked senseless to the floor, his side nearest the wall being considerably burned.

Chief Ort was notified yesterday by the authorities at Brent to watch the trains and be on the lookout for thugs who assaulted the C. and O. telegraph operator at that Station yesterday morning. He has one suspicious character in Jail awaiting developments, but it is quite likely the guilty ones are onto the fact that this city is provided with a first-class police force, and it would not be safe for them to head this way.

BOOKKEEPING.

Miss Nellie Haffy will begin a night class in bookkeeping September 24th.

C. D. Russell left yesterday with his trusty shotgun for Nepton, where he was joined by W. T. Daugherty and D. M. Curry for a several days hunt in Fleming and Nicholas counties. What this trio of marksmen and noted hunters will do to the squirrel family will be a plenty.

Mr. George A. Beckett, a well-known former citizen, now of Lexington, considered one of the finest brick masons in the state, is at present occupying considerable space in the Bluegrass papers from the fact that he recently passed from his system a monster ninety-foot tapeworm, the largest parasite that infests the human body. Mr. Beckett's mother resides in the East End.

SENATOR BAILEY of Texas won't attend the Louisville reception to BRYAN. He is disgusted with BRYAN's Government ownership doctrine. BAILEY pleaded with BRYAN before he made his Madison Square speech not to talk on Government ownership, and left the Hall as soon as he heard BRYAN begin on that portion of his address. He is quoted as saying—

"I won't attend the Louisville reception or be identified in any manner with such a program."

THE Real Estate Agents of Covington have filed suit to prevent the State Auditor or any of his Agents from collecting the license fee of $25 imposed by the last Legislature on all Real Estate Agents doing business in second, third, fourth or fifth class cities.

The contention of the plaintiffs is that the law is unconstitutional, in that it levies and assesses a license tax graduated according to classification of cities, and does not levy any license tax upon those engaged in the real estate business outside the cities, therefore it is discriminating.

Next thing you know, some Maysville man will jump up and enjoin the payment of the brick street tax, because that tax is not levied on the people of Murphysville.

GOVERNMENT ownership savors too much of centralization for the Southern people.

ADVOCATES of Municipal Ownership of Public Utilities should swoop down on Cincinnati and take a few notes on her present water service.

Who that knew TOM MURPHY, so long in the employ of the late Colonel W. W. BALDWIN of this county, but will appreciate this just tribute to his character, laid upon his bier by Colonel DESHA BRECKINRIDGE of The Lexington Herald:

TOM MURPHY—A GENTLEMAN UNAFRAID.

In the canvass of ten years ago, when the political feeling was more bitter than it seems possible to imagine now, we heard of a man who held a political position under the Democratic Administration in Lexington; he supported Colonel BRECKINRIDGE for Congress and PALMER and BUCKNER; he was outspoken in his support, and was finally told that if he was not more careful in what he said and where he said it he would lose his position. His answer was that when he had to keep silent to hold any position he would resign it, and resign it he did immediately, though in those days it was difficult for the most industrious to make a living, and that man had a family dependent upon him and whom he loved with the passionate love the Irish give their own. He did not know where he could turn to make a living, but he gave up the position which meant comfort for him and his rather than surrender the right to express his opinions when, where and how he pleased. That man will be buried in the Catholic Cemetery this morning, and no more gallant soldier nor truer gentleman was ever covered by the Bluegrass sod. TOM MURPHY was not a cultured nor even an educated man in the learning of the schools. He entered the Army when a mere lad, and for four years rode with TOM QUIRK, the eyes and ears of the dashing MORGAN. But in the real qualities of manhood he was as true a gentleman as any who rode in that immortal band. Brave, loyal, honest, truthful, gentle to the weak, generous to the poor, faithful to every duty, whether riding with QUIRK'S Scouts or filling a position in the city administration, or acting as Superintendent of the Race-track, he was a man, his own master and unafraid. From the time we first knew him till the time he died we counted it an honor to have his friendship and welcomed the day we saw him. His action in 1896 was an inspiration to us; it gave us a more vivid conception of the sort of stuff the old Confederates who fought through the War were made of; it made it easier at times to resist pressure to keep silent to recall TOM MURPHY'S action. And it was good, too, to know then that not even political differences could make those who appreciated manhood estranged. When TOM MURPHY resigned his place the County Judge secured him another position in no way connected with politics, in which he could make his living and be called to account for his opinions by no man. Today we lay the tribute of our friendship and admiration on his grave. May the sod rest lightly on the gallant, loyal, merry Irish gentleman.

Cannon "Shoots" Gompers

ERRORS OF LABOR LEADER

Mr. Cannon Defends Action of Representative Littlefield

Would Retire From Politics Rather Than Do Injury to Any One

In a recent speech at Lewiston, Me., Speaker Cannon thus criticized Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor.

"Mr. Samuel Gompers has come into your District and demanded the defeat of Charles E. Littlefield, your Representative in Congress—not because Mr. Littlefield has failed properly to represent the people of this District or even the workmen here, but because he has failed to comply with the demands of Mr. Gompers, who claims to be a citizen of New York and a resident of Washington.

"Mr. Gompers has introduced a new element into American politics. He does not exercise the right of petition; he demands that Congress enact into laws his will.

HE COMMANDS YOU.

"He does not appeal to you; he commands you, if you are a member of the Federation, to go to the polls and vote as he would vote. He does not come here to argue; he publishes a decree in the name of labor that the public officials who refused to obey his command shall be retired from public life.

"On what meat does this new Caesar feed to make him different from other political bosses in this day of the decadence of bossism? He is President of the Federation of Labor, an honorable organization, which has accomplished much for the wage-earner, and is capable of accomplishing much more when properly directed by those who exercise the functions for which they were elected to office in the Union. I have no prejudice against the Federation of Labor.

"My sympathies are with it in all efforts and struggles to improve the material condition and secure a larger share of the profits of production for the wage-earners.

"I do not, however, believe in proscription in politics. It is foreign to our institutions, foreign to a government of the people.

"I am opposed to Mr. Gompers's political methods of blacklisting men who vote as their conscience and judgment and the welfare of their constituents dictate.

"It is reported that Mr. Gompers has made an assessment on the members of the Federation of Labor to secure money for use in this campaign. A member of the Federation may be a Republican in favor of Republican policies, but he is assessed to make a campaign against his own interests as he sees them because Mr. Gompers is opposed.

NEVER WILL SUCCEED.

"Such methods in politics have never succeeded in this country, and they never will. The old Know-Nothing party tried this method of blacklisting all who were not native-born. It would have blacklisted Mr. Gompers and other Federation leaders as not qualified to hold public office. But the life of that party was short.

"Such efforts will always fail, because every man is here a co-sovereign as he exercises his inalienable rights to unite with his fellows, be they farmers or factory employes, railroad men, doctors or lawyers, and agree upon policies which they believe to be for the best interests of the whole people. I believe this effort to combine the vote of organized labor in politics would fail even if a majority of the Federation of Labor adopted it.

WILL NOT FOLLOW HIM.

"I am certain that it will fail as the order of Mr. Gompers and the Executive Committee of the organization. The workingmen, both Union and non-Union of this country, will act with the organization in what pertains to the purpose of the Union, and they will follow Mr. Gompers so long as he exercises the functions for which he was chosen as President of the Federation of Labor.

"But they will not follow him in his self-assumed function of dictating how they shall exercise their right of citizenship. They will go to the polls, and, with the Australian ballot in their hand, they will walk under their own hat brims, and not under that of Mr. Gompers.

GOMPERS HAS GRIEVANCE.

"Mr. Gompers has a grievance against your Representative, as he has against President Roosevelt, myself and forty or fifty other men in public life. We refused to disregard our oaths of office and enact legislation which Mr. Gompers demands.

"He is aggrieved because Congress suspended the eight-hour law in the Panama Canal zone, as it applied to alien labor, not American labor. He is aggrieved because the President has authorized the employment of Chinese labor in digging the Canal because American labor cannot and will not go there.

"He is aggrieved because Congress would not enact an anti-injunction law which he approved and declared constitutional. Some men, among them your Representative and myself, did not believe the proposed law to be either constitutional or fair to all the people.

"It proposed to repeal the common law which is older than our Government, and which by legislation and the decisions of the Courts, which under the constitution interpret the laws, have from the beginning exercised the power to protect property from destruction and damage where the damage would be irreparable.

"This proposed law demanded by Mr. Gompers in substance prohibited the United States Courts from issuing injunctions in any case between employer and employe unless necessary to prevent irreparable injury to property or to a property right of the party making the application, for which injury there is no adequate remedy at law, and in the next sentence the bill provides that for the purpose of this act no right to carry on business of any particular kind or at any particular place at all shall be construed, held, considered or treated as property or as constituting a property right.

"This means that what is property and a property right under ordinary interpretation of law shall not be considered property or a property right in a labor dispute. It would be one law for the men who seek to destroy property in a strike and another law for those who seek to destroy property under all other circumstances; one law for the striker and another law for the rest of the people.

"Mr. Gompers has blacklisted us because Congress failed to pass that law. He has read us out of civilization. But, speaking for myself, I had rather quit public life now and at the age 70 quit forever, true to the civilization we have developed, true to the distribution of powers to the legislative, the executive and the judiciary, which are a check upon each other, than to retain public office at such a sacrifice to my own self-respect and such terrible cost to the country.

While God gives me life to live I will not by any act take from any citizen, be he rich or poor, Union man or non-Union man, farmer or mechanic, shoemaker or paper maker, doctor or lawyer, any right which is given to another.

"I will not vote for any law which will make fair for one and foul for another. And I believe that by the grace of God and the intelligence and the patriotism of the people in this District the laboring men, Republicans and Democrats, who are for law and order, will put their feet upon Mr. Gompers's proposition, because it is un-Republican, un-Democratic and un-American."

Maysville People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.

It's not words, but deeds, that prove true merit.
The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills, For Maysville kidney sufferers, Have made their local reputation.
Proof lies in the testimony of Maysville people who have been cured to stay cured.
John Wallingford, living at the corner of Commerce and East Second streets, Maysville, Ky., says:
"I first procured Doan's Kidney Pills in 1899 at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, and they stopped an attack of backache, one of many which had annoyed me for some time. My wife at that time gave for publication in our local papers a statement telling of the great benefit I had derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, and now, some five years later, I can say that the cure then effected has been complete and permanent. My back and kidneys have never given me the least cause for complaint. Mrs. Wallingford also appreciated the value of Doan's Kidney Pills from personal experience with them. She suffered most acutely with backache, especially at night, and Doan's Kidney Pills promptly and thoroughly cured her."
